Who completes this form?

Accredited Body

The Accredited Body or its Legal Entity Customer pre-populates this form with information in the following sections: How to submit this form, Contact details and question D1.

Applicant

You are required to provide your personal details and Informed Consent to complete this form. You must also provide your identity documents as detailed in Documents required. If you are less than 18 years of age, this form must be completed by your parent or legal guardian. You are completing this form to obtain a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

What is a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check?

A Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check is conducted with your Informed Consent to determine your suitability for employment, a position of trust or as required by legislation. A Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check contains your personal information and any relevant police information about you according to the purpose of your Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

Privacy notice

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian Police Agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the Applicant's identity documentation:

-) to disclose police information relating to you to the Accredited Body named in question D1;
-) to update records held about you; and
-) for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth).

Accredited Body

The Accredited Body or its Legal Entity Customer uses the personal information collected in this application to request a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check and to confirm your identity.

The Accredited Body may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party. If applicable, third parties are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information about relevant legislation from the Accredited Body.

The Accredited Body or its Legal Entity Customer must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted Offshore Transfer Arrangement. If this applies, the legal name and location of the overseas entity are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information from the Accredited Body listed in D1.

How is my National Coordinated Criminal History Check result determined?

Police information is disclosed in accordance with applicable spent conviction legislation and information release policies of the Australian Government and state and territory governments.

These links may help you source information on spent convictions:

Section C – Personal information

C1. Please read this before answering the following questions.

All known names:

You must disclose all names you have been known by throughout your life, including your full legal name, name before marriage (maiden name), and other previous names and/or alias names.

All names that you submit as part of your Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check, will appear on the check result. If you are concerned about the disclosure of a previous name, please contact the Accredited Body. With each additional name you provide, you must include your family name, first given names and other given names (if applicable).

Example: When Lucianne was born, she was given the first name Lucianne, second given name Jane and surname of Jones. When she was married, she changed her surname to Smith. Lucianne commonly uses the name Lucy when introducing herself in the community.

As such, Lucianne has four known names—her current name, maiden name, the alias name she used before she got married and the alias name she uses now. Lucianne needs to provide all four names when completing this form, as follows:

- Current name: Smith, Lucianne Jane
- Maiden name: Jones, Lucianne Jane
- Alias name: Smith, Lucy Jane
- Alias name: Jones, Lucy Jane

Single Names

A single name is where your name comprises of:

- only one word; or
- several words not using Western naming conventions (as per your commencement document).

Example:

- Angel - with no other name
- Mohammed Rasheed Khan – consists of several words that are not documented with a specific first name, middle name, and family name.

Section D – Informed Consent

What is Informed Consent?

Your Informed Consent is needed before an Accredited Body can request a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check for you.

Your Informed Consent means you:

- have read and understood the information provided in this form about how your personal information and any police information relevant to you will be handled and disclosed
- provide your permission for the Accredited Body to request a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check on your behalf
- provide your permission for the Accredited Body to disclose your information to any organisation listed in D1 of this form.

How do I provide my Informed Consent?

An important aspect of providing informed consent is that you understand what you are consenting to. It is important that you read the consent statements in question D2 and, where required, get clarification from the Accredited Body or its Legal Entity Customer, to ensure complete understanding. You must then sign and date this form at D2, to give your Informed Consent.

Important: Please read this information about question D1.

The Accredited Body is required to complete the details at D1 before providing the form to you.

D1 provides the details of the organisations to whom your personal and police information will be disclosed to.

In question D2, you will provide your informed consent for your personal and police information to be disclosed to the ACIC, Australian police agencies, law enforcement agencies, and any organisations detailed in question D1.
